

LÉKAŘ A TECHNIKA – CLINICIAN AND TECHNOLOGY

VOLUME 47 • NUMBER 2 • JUNE 2017

The scientific journal of the Czech Society for Biomedical Engineering and Medical Informatics and the Faculty of Biomedical Engineering, Czech Technical University in Prague

Lékař a technika – Clinician and Technology is the oldest regularly appearing specialist journal dealing with new findings in research, development, production and implementation of medical technology. Since 1970, it has been publishing original research articles and review papers by authors, who present topical and newly discovered information in the field of medical technology.
