

10th Hypoxia Symposium 2023

Instructions for abstract submission

These guidelines apply for submission of abstract for the 10th Hypoxia symposium for both, poster and oral presentation.

Symposium topics:

- Hypoxia in Intensive Care
- Hypoxia in Aviation medicine
- Hypoxia in Diving and Hyperbaric medicine
- Hypoxia due to COVID-19, incl. mountaineering after COVID-19
- Work in isobaric hypoxia (fire protection systems)
- Mountain medicine (AMS, HACE, HAPE etc.)
- Risk assessment and prevention in the mountains
- Hypoxia and altitude training
- Avalanche research
- Technology and validity of physiological measurement
- Others / miscellaneous

Requirements for abstract submission:

Abstracts must be submitted in English and should be maximum 400 long (abstract title, list of authors and references not included)

Images, tables and references may be included in the abstract (limit: 1 figure/table per abstract, 5 references).

Abstracts should be as informative as possible and should be adequately ordered in the following sequence and structure:

1st line: Name(s) of author(s)

2nd line: Title

3rd line: Facility of the author(s)

4th+ line:

Introduction

Objectives

Methods

Results

Conclusions

References (if any, max. 5)

Grant Acknowledgement